6 Privacy notice

Data collection and processing is undertaken in accordance with the IMCA privacy policy, which sets out your rights and our responsibilities, available at www.imca-int.com/privacy-policy

Data provided in respect of this application is used for the following purpose(s):

- Accreditation and certification – IMCA runs accreditation and certification schemes for certain positions in the offshore marine industry. As part of this, it collects and processes personal data relating to candidates and qualified personnel, which includes additional identity verification (such as passport or driving licence details), details of relevant certification and work history and a history of the application process, including examinations and resits. Such data is generally retained permanently. This is required to ensure a robust system that ensures the competence of those working in highly safety-critical positions in the offshore industry.
- IMCA uses the TestReach platform for the provision of examinations via a secure online facility. This requires basic personal data to be shared with TestReach for the sole purpose of candidate exam registration. IMCA has reviewed the capabilities and policies of TestReach, reviewed the data security arrangements and entered into an appropriate agreement to ensure the security of your personal data.

7 Declaration

To be completed by the candidate:

I confirm that I wish to apply for examination and accreditation as DP Trials & Assurance Practitioner, in accordance with the requirements set out in IMCA M 249 – DP Practitioner Accreditation Scheme Handbook – with my personal data processed in accordance with the IMCA privacy policy.

I accept that my application, any examinations pursuant to it, and (if I am successful) my accreditation, will be governed by the Terms and Conditions for DP Practitioner Accreditation which are published at:
www.imca-int.com/legal-notice/terms-dp-accreditation/.

I understand that IMCA reserves the right to suspend or withdraw my accreditation if it is subsequently proven that: (i) I have submitted fraudulent or deceitful information; (ii) I have been in anyway dishonest during the examination process; (iii) I have acted contrary to good industry practice, contrary to the aims and objectives of IMCA or in a way that could bring IMCA into disrepute. I accept that any dispute arising out of or relating to my examination or certification will be governed by English law and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

By becoming accredited I agree to receive information notes, DP event bulletins and safety notes and positively promote the use of, and adherence to, IMCA DP related guidance. I accept the DP Practitioner Accreditation Scheme terms & conditions.
