UK's first Crew Transfer Vessels seminar

A one day workshop – the critical issues in the CTV sector

Thursday 3 March 2022

Stephenson Harwood and Colebrook Offshore Ltd hope you will be able to join them on Thursday 3 March 2022 in London to recognise the growing significance of Crew Transfer Vessels to the successful development of the offshore windfarm sector.

We have developed a one-day program to highlight what we believe are the current talking points for those engaged in or investing in the CTV sector. We therefore aim to provide a setting not only for us to share our knowledge with a select group of industry insiders but to act as a forum for participants to raise and debate through the issues which are current in the industry.

We strive to host inclusive, accessible events that enable everyone to access and enjoy. To request an adjustment or for inquiries about accessibility, please contact reception.

RSVP now ▶

We hope that this day will be enlightening and entertaining to all owners, operators, and charterers of CTVs plus those who are involved in servicing their needs such as financiers, insurers, builders and designers.

Yours sincerely
