

IMCA DP CONFERENCE

31 May – 1 June 2022, Amsterdam

Dynamic Positioning is in our DNA.

Join us for a two-day conference focusing on technical and operational matters relating to Dynamic Positioning.

Outputs from this conference will influence and shape the future of DP.

We have an exciting line up of speakers and interactive sessions and open Q&A panels. All sessions are relevant to both offshore renewable energy and oil & gas operations. The event will include IMCA's renowned Quickfire Total Technology Session.

This two-day seminar provides an opportunity for IMCA members and industry colleagues to participate in an industry forum where attendees will hear from experts in Dynamic Positioning and have the opportunity to participate in Q&A sessions and workshops helping to formulate the work programme for IMCA's Dynamic Positioning Committee.

Key topics will cover:

IMCA DP Reflection covering all aspects of DP from within the Secretariat covering key areas of the DP Committee's ongoing programme.

Assurance & Training covering DP content and findings analysis from eCMID and eMISW, the latest on DP training, accreditation and continual professional development.

A dedicated session on operational challenges including a look at shallow water operations, hearing from the people behind the DP desk, DP Annual Trials & Assurance, Decision Support Tools and IMCA guidance for renewable energy projects and an industry expert open panel discussion.

IMCA DP CONFERENCE

Technical Agenda

The full agenda focusing on technical and operational matters relating to DP is available online at www.imca-int.com/events/imca-dp-conference-agenda/

Be part of the Quickfire Totally Technology Session

Alongside our exciting line up of speakers and interactive sessions we will be running IMCA's renowned Quickfire Totally Technology Session which has been a regular feature of IMCA events and provides an opportunity for often small and medium sized companies to showcase their ideas and innovations to industry leaders in a dynamic and inspiring way in a session set against the clock!

- A 10-minute time limit is strictly controlled by the session moderator. A count-down clock is used to maintain the schedule.
- The technology or innovation should be new or relatively new to the oil and gas or renewables industry.
- Background information on the company and its business should be minimal – we don't want long corporate explanations.
- Quickfire participants need to register and pay any conference fees prior to the event.
- Quickfire participants will be featured in the event programme.

Apply now by submitting your proposed presentation, an abstract explaining the technology or innovation in 150 words. Additional supporting video/photographs/charts/etc may be included.

A review committee will assess all entrants and select the companies to present during the event.

Deadline for submissions: 12 May 2022

Successful applicants will be required to pay the Member rate of £250 to attend the event. Terms & Conditions apply. IMCA is obliged to charge Netherlands Tax on all chargeable items.

Sponsorship

Sponsorship opportunities ranging from drinks reception, coffee breaks, lunches, wifi, interactive tool sli.do are available from £1,500 - £3,000 per item plus taxes.

Exhibition

Exhibition stands available on a first come first served basis so you can showcase your company, product, services at a fee of £2,000 per stand.

- Each stand will include 1 delegate place at the conference.
- A small table and chair will be provided.
